In the old way there was the Muslin to buy and then the work and worry of measuring and hemming—may be a mile of stitching, and not a very big lot at that.

Now, a postal card is enough. Name the sizes and the sorts, —hardly more to pay than if you got the uncut Muslin.

Prescription Druggist.

To accommodate our customers we have some years since put on our shelves the only complete line of Remedies used by Homeopathic Physicians carried in the city. For this reason the impression exists in some quarters that we have only Homeopathic goods.

Such is not the fact. On the contrary, we have one of the largest and most complete drug stocks in the city, which is in the care of competent Pharmacists of long experience in compounding and dispensing prescriptions of all kinds.

Having no interest in the sale of patent medicines we do no counter prescription, but do to a legiti-mate prescription and physician's supply business, depending on the production and the public desiring reliable drugs at reasonable prices for a continuance of the liberal patronage bestowed on us in the past.

While extending both our Wholesale and Retail Drug Business, our Optical, Surgical and Sundry Departments are Not Neglected. Oculists' Prescriptions and Eye Glasses requiring special Fitting and Setting are made to order and carefully adjusted. Our stock of Surgical Instruments and Dressings

is complete, and personal attention is given to the selection and fitting all appliances for deformities, trusses, etc. All our elastic goods, hose, kneecaps, and anklets are furnished fresh from our own looms, ensuring perfect fit and the best possible wear.

Hyperion.

A packed house greeted the Brownies at the Hyperion last night, and at the matinee a big audience was present.
At last evening's performance were a large number of Hartford people and people from Wallingford, Meriden, New Britain, Berlin, etc., and many from up the Hartford road were at the matinee.
It was Hartford's day, and the Bunnell special train back to Hartford last night took back 400 or 500 people, all delighted with the Brownies. Many people prominent in the state were present either at the afternoon or evening performance, or at both. Among the hundreds from other cities and towns last evening were the family of Judge Beardsley and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis of Bridgeport, Dr. M. V. B. Dunbar of Greenfield Hill, Mr. Sturgis of Mill Plain, Hon. B. Frank Hungerford, representative from Sherman to the general assembly, who is a cousin of Mr.
G. B. Bunnell; also the Jennings of Southport; also many others of prominence from other places.

The Brownies are certainly a brilliant success, and Manager Bunnell is already "out of the woods" on his contract, and the sale for the remaining performances is great. To-morrow is Bunnell's Big Brownies' Day for the Berkshire division and Danbury folk.
Last night Champion's foyer presented brilliant scene between the acts, and the hot chocolate and whipped cream disappeared at a magical rate.

Saturday night will be Yale night, in honor of which the house will be decorated in blue by F. M. Brown & Co.
All who attend the evening performance on Saturday night are assured that the performance will not be cut, as the company are not hurried away and do not leave this city until Sunday. All who intend witnessing any of the remaining performances of the Brownies should purchase their tickets at once, as there is a very large sale for all performances.

The following letter has been received by Mr. Bunnell: I have made arrangements with the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company to sell excursion tickets Friday and Saturday, March 15 and 16, from Ansonia, Birmingham, Shelton and Derby to New Haven at 50 cents for the round trip to give the people an opportunity to attend the matinee or evening performances of the Brownies, as they desire. Tickets are good all day Friday or Saturday, on the day purchased.

Superintendent.

Grand Opera House.

Colonel John Hopkins' Transcendental Star Specialty company appears at this theater for a three nights' engagement commencing to-night. There are in this troupe ten noted European and American stars. The following will be seen first: First company, the mental wonder, Gertie Cochran. Scarcely four years of age, she answers questions after questions that are put to her on the Bible, history, geography and all current events without hesitation. Then Fulgora, the world's greatest transfigura-tor. He will also introduce his great race scene with three thoroughbred interns for the supremacy, then the Donizetti, England's marvelous acrobats and pantomimists; then Smith and Fuller, a genuine musical novelty, introducing their latest South American marimbo and bamboo bells; Professor De Besselle, the funny Parisian lightning modeler; Bartlett and May, styled the loose-jointed man and the little girl; Tom Mack, monologues artist, with every joke and song as bright as a new coined dollar; Clayton, Jenkins and Jasper in their very funny skit, "The Darktown Circus"; La Petite Nette Decour-sey in her latest sensation, "Will You Marry Me?" and Burt Jordan, the champion buck and flat foot dancer of the world. Transcendental matinee Saturday.

The attraction at the Grand the first three days next week will be Ullie Ak-erstrom, the favorite actress. Her repertoire will be: Monday matinee and evening, "Melinda's Woes"; Tuesday evening, "A Beautiful Slave"; Wednesday matinee, "Pride of the Circus"; Wednesday evening, "The Sultan's Daughter."

Poli's Wonderland Theater.

There is entertainment for all tastes at the Wonderland this week. James Thornton, the great monologue artist, who heads the bill, is exceptionally clever as a maker of fun. Mr. Thornton is the famous author of "Pretty Maggie Mooney," "My Sweetheart's the Man in the Moon," and other popular songs, and he sings several bright and catchy selections of his own composition during his monologue. Halford and Mantel are among the greatest favorites on the bill, their descriptive singing drama and the tuneful song "Jane" being especially pleasing. Crimmins and Gore, the little McCoy sisters, Seeley and West, Gilbert Sarony, Mr. and Mrs. Lester, Miss Pearl Raymond, and the Tills with their marionettes, have won much favor also, with their interesting specialties. The whole bill is very attractive.

Striking Boys Return to Work.

Thompsonville, March 13.—A number of boys employed in the factory of the Hartford Carpet works, who went out on strike Monday, returned to work again this morning. The officials of the concern notified the parents of the strikers that if they were not back in their places in the shop this morning they would be discharged. The boys struck because the company would not grant an increase of five cents a day in their wages. They have been receiving 65 cents and demanded 70 cents a day.

Captain Averill of Branford Dead.

Branford, March 13.—Captain Daniel Averill, a retired seafaring man, died to-day at his home at Branford Point after a short illness. He was seventy-six years of age and had commanded many coasters. He leaves a family.

D. K. E. at Yale.

The Yale Weekly says that active members of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Junior society have subscribed $4,000 for the new society building, and alumni of the society $2,000 more. A feature of the structure will be provision for the society's alumni during commencement week and other regularly.

DIXWELL AVE. CONG. CHURCH.

Anniversary of Mr. Miller's Pastorate.—Dr.
Miller of New York Speaks on Matters of Interest to the Race.

The twelfth anniversary of the pastore-ate of Rev. A. P. Miller of the Dix-well avenue church was celebrated last evening at the church. Despite the rain the church was well filled with members of the congregation and the many friends of Mr. Miller. A well-arranged program was carried out as follows:

Piano Solo—Miss Adeline Cooper.
Music—Church Choir.

Prayer.
Recitation—Miss Maggie Randolph.
Solo—Only the Sound of a Voice—John W. Ross.

Recitation—William A. Brown.
Music—Church Choir.

Anniversary Address—"Some Crisis and How They Have Been Met"— Rev. Ernest Lyons, D. D., pastor of St. Mark's church, New York.

Duet—"The Misses William Prioleau." The recitation by Miss Randolph was very humorous and was well rendered.
Mr. Ross' solo was particularly fine and was sung in a most pleasing manner. "The Sound of a Voice" was a splendid vocal application. Mr.
Lyons' recitation was also a very neat production. Dr. Lyons was introduced by Mr. Miller and in opening his address said that Shakespeare says crisis only come to men and nations once, that is real crisis. Every nation and every people have had to meet their crisis, as has also every man of whom history has given any account, or who has climbed the ladder of honor, or distinction. In mythology also we read of the crisis met by Hercules, Theseus and other heroes, but passing to our own world of business, capital labor and religion we find that the crises are there. In religion they have been met by Luther in Germany and by Knox in Scotland. In the war with Louis XIV. Holland met the crisis and was saved from the conqueror.
Napoleon met his crisis and was lost.
Coming to our own country from these historic scenes we review the great crisis met by the colored race from which they are now recovering. They can only do this by their own effort.
Let the young men and women of the race work for its uplifting. The race which thirty years ago was without money or homes, now owns $200,000,000 worth of property in this country, turns out yearly over 4,000 trained mechanics and has 15,000 young men and women in industrial school training their heads and their hands.

The audience was highly delighted with the address and the speaker was frequently interrupted by bursts of applause. After the program was completed refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in social festivities.
